MILLENNIUM

TRILLIUM

During practice for the annual Trillium pageant, Amy Lewis instructs the contestants on where they should stand.

Co-Lin students enjoy the homecoming dance.

Music department members Brad Johnson, Stanley Stewart, and Tom Ross discuss studen placement at pre-registration.

One of the new additions to the Co-Lin campus is the Billy B. Thames Conference Center. Completed in November, the Conference Center houses the Division of Community Services and is also used for various conferences and events.

As we enter the new millennium, many things have changed at Copiah-Lincoln Community College. New faculty, administration, and staff have changed the face of the college. New facilities have been built. Also, many priceless memories were made this year. The Trillium staff chose the theme "Millennium" for the 1999-2000 yearbook because we are entering a new millennium. The staff worked hard to capture the memories of this year and will do its best to capture the memories of the next millennium.

Blue Wave band members take a break from marching and relax on the ground.

England or Bust!

The 1999 crew poses for a photo shoot before the "Long Walk" as Dr. Durr Walker takes a long time photographing the group.

Dr. Durr Walker has taken a group from Co-Lin to England every year for the past twenty-six years, and every year the group seems to get larger and larger. This spring, thirty-five composed the group. Walk guided tour goers through England's sites masterfully, which was not an easy task. Getting thirty-five people on and off the "underground," London's subway system, is a chore many would not dare attempt. However, by the end of the trip everyone seemed like natives, sliding cards through and staying on the proper side of the escalators.Some of the sites outside of London included Stonehenge, Stratford-Upon-Avon, Warwick Castle, Anne Hathaway's cottage, and a quick peek at Sting's house. Other highlights included seeing Andrew Lloyd Webberr's "Starlight Express" and eating fish and chips at Sherlock Holmes Pub.

Dr. Durr Walker welcomes the group to Anne Hathaway's cottage. Anne Hathaway was Willam Shakespeare's wife.

Spring Break 1999

At approximately 10:40 am, according to Big Ben, Dr. Walker snapped this shot of the group outside Westminster Abbey.

The group came "unhenged" when they went to Stonehenge one freezing day.

Part of the Roman City wall can be seen at the Tower of London along with the carnivorous ravens (see lunch in bottom of photo).

Mrs. Ashley Bonds, Co-Lin English instructor, wished she had not worn the fragrance "Ode to Pigeon" when the group visited Trafalgar Square.

Dr. Durr Walker, tour guide and Humanities Division Chair, was knighted by Queen Elizabeth during a banquet the group attended.

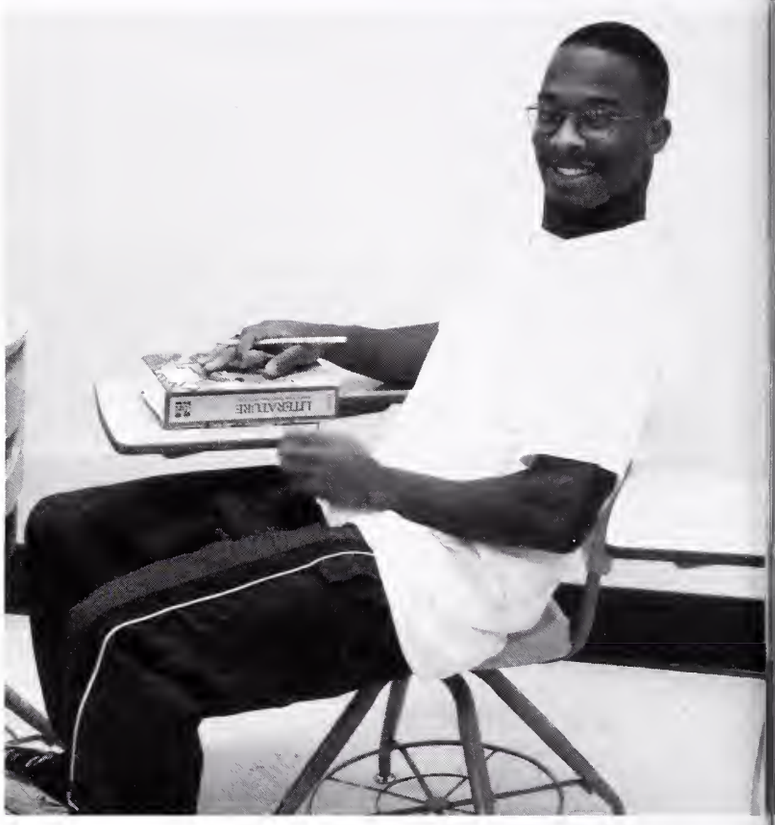
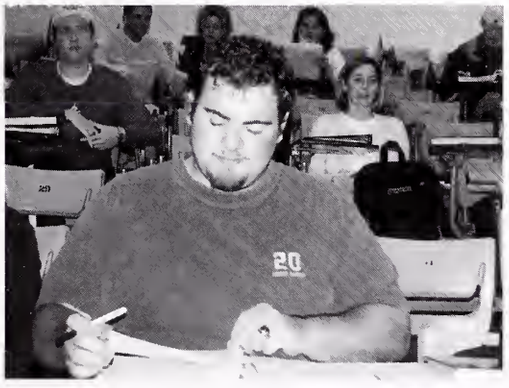
ACADEMICS.....





The Billy B. Thames Conference Center

The dedication of the Billy B. Thames Convention Center was held February 4, 2000. Dr. Thames was president of the college from January 1968 to June 1997, where he considered his 30 years of service to the college as an honor itself.

During Dr. Thames' presidency, he saw many changes take place such as the construction of 15 new buildings on the Wesson campus, as well as a new branch in Natchez. Not only did Dr. Thames see the campus grow, but he saw the number of students increase as well. While president, Dr. Thames witnessed the increase of the student body from 600 to over 5000.

The College's Division of Community Services Offices are housed at the center, which has over 19,000 square feet of office and meeting space. The primary function of the center will be hosting training conferences, meetings, seminars, and workshops. The Center includes a large banquet hall, a full service kitchen, and two training rooms: The Wesson Room and The Natchez Room, which has computers and technology for video conferencing and other meeting needs.

The Thames Center, which is full of state-of-the art technology and focused on community service, was an early vision of Dr. Thames. Dr. Garner stated, "He left a legacy here at Co-Lin and that will live forever. This building is a symbol of that legacy."

Dedicated February 3, 2000

We would especially like to thank Trillium sponsors, Ashley Bonds and Casey Hardison; Trillium photographer Jennifer Delaughter; and the entire Trillium staff. Without their hours of help and support, this yearbook would not have been a success. We also extend thanks to Johnny Smith and Natalie Davis. We hope we have captured many enjoyable memories of the past school year and have presented a book that will enable you in the future to look back on your years at Co-Lin and remember them with a smile.

TRILLIUM OF THE MILLENNIUM

While the millennium brings with it new hopes, new dreams, new promises, new fears, and new uncertainties, one thing remains unchanged. Co-Lin/Natchez continues to be dedicated to providing the Miss-Lou community with an affordable, quality education.

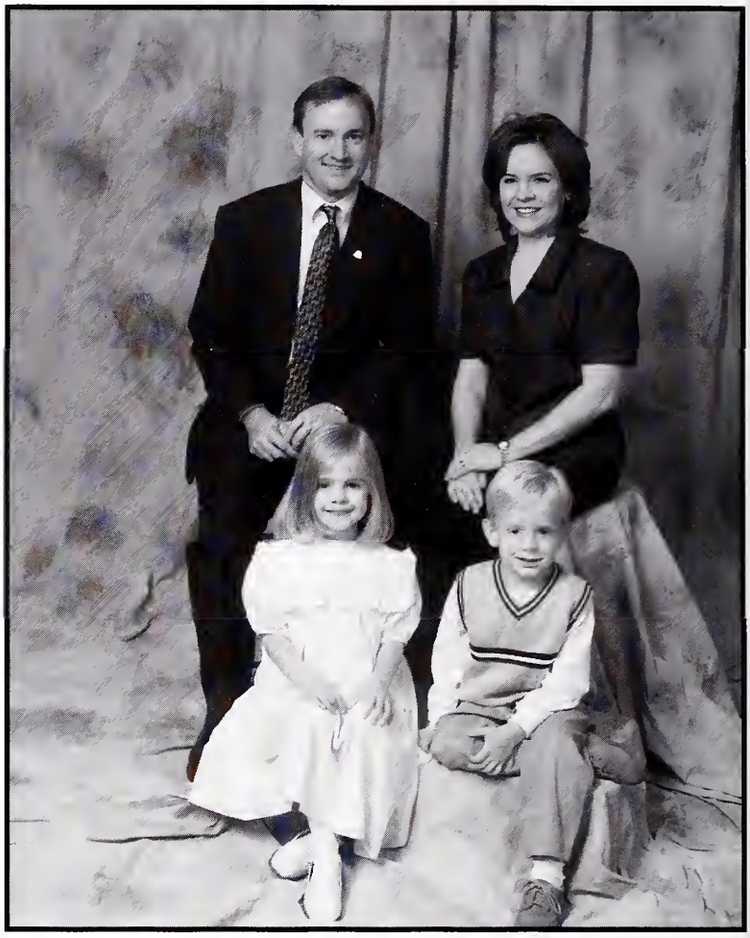
According to Sandra Gibson, director of admissions and records, "Co-Lin/Natchez has been around for more than 25 years and every year it proves that it can handle the community's educational needs." This is evident in the growth and expansion of its facilities and student population. For example, over the last 10 years Co-Lin/Natchez has increased its student population by 86.6%.

The small college atmosphere of Co-Lin/Natchez creates a family type of environment for faculty, administrators, staff, and students. For instance, we applaud each others' successes and accomplishments. We are there to encourage one another when tasks seem too difficult to complete or obstacles seem too difficult to overcome. And, we are there to mourn the deaths of our fellow classmates and instructors. We will never forget how their lives have touched our lives in so many special ways. In remembrance of these friends and colleagues, we pledge to never forget them and to continue to strive to be the best that we can be.

We, the students, faculty, administrators, and staff of Co-Lin/Natchez, find life to be a continuous, exciting, and challenging journey, one in which we are constantly learning from each other and growing in wisdom and knowledge from our experiences inside and outside the classroom. And, through all the good times and bad times, and through all the fears and anticipations of what the new millennium will bring, we know in our hearts and minds that Co-Lin/Natchez will remain the place to be.

Stepping into the New Millennium

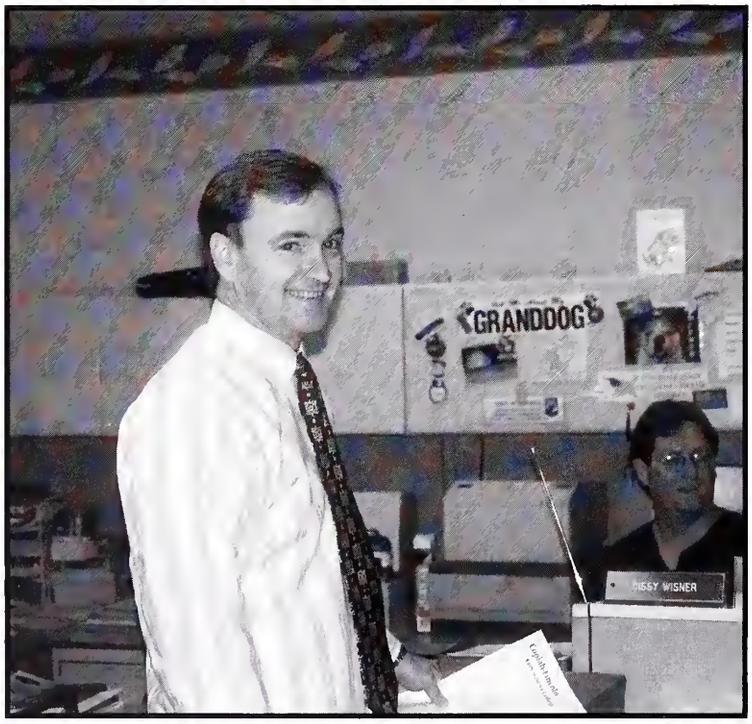
Ronald E. Nettles
Dean of the Natchez Campus



The Nettles family included Ronald and Rosie and their children Jordan and Brandy. Ronald E. NEttles became dean of the Natchez Campus in July 1997. For the three years prior to becoming dean on the Natches Campus, he served as the Director of Community and Economic Development for Co-Lin, where he was responsible for coordinating the development of customized training and educational programs for business and industry. Nettles, a Natches native, graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science in 1983, and a Master of Education degree in Counseling and Personnel Services in 1986. He received a Ph. D. from the University of Mississippi in Educational Leadershp in 1994. Prior to his employment at Co-Lin, Nettles was the Diretor of Career Planning and Placement at the Univrsity of Southern Mississippi.

Nettles is an active member of the Natches Rotary Club and serves on the board of directors and co-chairs the education committee of the Natchez Chamber of Commerce. He is also a member of the ACademic Deans Association and the Mississippi Association of School Administrators. He is past president of the Mississippi Cooperative Education and Placement Association and the University Civitan Club in Hattiesburg.

Nettles' goal for the Natchez campus is for the college to continue to provide a quality education in a caring environment. According to him, "The Natches campus has been her for 27 years and has become the higher education cornerstone for hundreds, if not thousands, of residents in the Miss-Lou. In the coming century, we look forward to providing even greater opportunities to more groups and people of this area."



Dr. Nettles takes a break from his busy schedule to pose for the camera.

Dr. Nettles always takes time to listen.
